

Fixed English Voice Keypad

Honeywell

Talk about convenience! Honeywell's Fixed English Voice Keypad actually speaks to you—providing security system status and zone information in plain, spoken English (i.e. "AWAY," "STAY," etc). Security has never been simpler. The other benefits speak for themselves as well.

The 6150V Fixed English Voice Keypad also features:

- Easy-to-read display that spells out system status in plain English
- Comfortable, soft-touch keys labeled with simple commands
- A convenient Family Message Center
- Customized function keys programmable to contact emergency personnel; can be color coded for easy use
- A sleek, attractive white console that blends with any décor and can be placed on a wall or tabletop

No more codes or buzzing. No more flashing lights. Just convenient, sophisticated and user-friendly features that make security system operation easier than ever—making Honeywell's 6150V Fixed English Voice Keypad a product worth talking about!
